7 3. Description of Base Form Change Request.

8 As no variation of legal form or real estate form library is identical, some protections or provisions may be left out if Parties utilize 9 multiple types/libraries of form in the same transaction. It is in the best interest of the Parties to confirm that the same variation of 10 base forms is consistently used for the entirety of the Agreement and all addenda, amendments, or attachments. Therefore, if the 11 Buyer presents an offer or counteroffer on one form library and Seller presents a counteroffer or otherwise contemplates using a 12 different library of forms, the Parties are encouraged to make use of this Base Form Change Request to obligate all offers, 13 counteroffers, and addenda utilize the same variation of form, thereby ensuring internal consistency of form provisions.

14 Buyer or Seller may simply reject the offer that is presented on the different form. This Base Form Change Request is to be used as a 15 good faith notice to the other Party that their offer or counteroffer may be more competitive if presented on a specific form 16 type/library.
